Del.Bankr.LR 2016-2, the law firm of Woodcock Washburn LLP ("Woodcock"), special litigation counsel and ordinary course professional for the above-captioned debtors and debtors-in-possession (collectively, the "Debtors"), hereby applies for an order allowing it (i) compensation in the amount of $15,022.50 for the reasonable and necessary legal service Woodcock has rendered to the Debtors and (ii) reimbursement for the actual and necessary expenses Woodcock has incurred in the amount of $4.72 for the interim quarterly period from April1, 2010, through June 30, 2010 (the "Fee Period").

In support of this Application, Woodcock states as follows:

Background

Retention of Woodcock Washburn

1. By this Court's order dated January 22, 2003, (the "Retention Order"), the Debtors were authorized to retain Woodcock as special litigation counsel. On April 15, 2005, the Court entered a further Order ("the Expansion Order") granting Debtor's "Motion for Authorization to Modify and Expand the Scope of Services Provided by Woodcock Washburn LLP." This Order authorized Debtor to retain Woodcock to provide to Debtor further services in ordinary course in the field of intellectual property and authorized Debtor to reimburse Woodcock for ordinary course services provided prior to the Order entry date. The Retention Order and Expansion Order authorize the Debtor to compensate Woodcock at Woodcock's hourly rates charged for services of this kind and to reimburse Woodcock for actual and necessary out-of-pocket expenses that it incurred, subject to application to this Court in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code, the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, applicable local rules, and orders of this Court.

² As explained below, Woodcock has just determined that its monthly petition for May 2010 understated its fees by $1,300.00. This amended petition is filed to recapture that amount, which is reflected in the amended requested compensation of $15,022.50.

Interim Fee Applications Covered Herein

- 2. Pursuant to the procedures set forth in the Interim Compensation Order and the Amended Interim Compensation Order, professionals may apply for monthly compensation and reimbursement (each such application, a "Monthly Fee Application"); the notice parties listed in the Amended Interim Compensation Order may object to such request. If no notice party objects to a professional's Monthly Fee Application within twenty (20) days after the date of service of the Monthly Fee Application, the applicable professional may submit to the Court a certification of no objection whereupon the Debtors are authorized to pay interim compensation and reimbursement of 80% of the fees and 100% of the expenses requested.
- 3. Furthermore, and also pursuant to the Amended Interim Compensation Order, after the end of each quarter, professionals are to file and serve upon the notice parties a quarterly request (a "Quarterly Fee Application") for interim Court approval and allowance of the Monthly Fee Applications filed during the quarter covered by that Quarterly Fee Application. If the Court grants the relief requested by the Quarterly Fee Application, the Debtors are authorized and directed to pay the professional 100% of the fees and expenses requested in the Monthly Fee Applications covered by that Quarterly Fee Application less any amounts previously paid in connection with the Monthly Fee Applications. Any payment made pursuant to the Monthly Fee Applications or a Quarterly Fee Application is subject to final approval of all fees and expenses at a hearing on the professional's final fee application.

- 4. This Quarterly Fee Application, which is submitted in accordance with the Amended Interim Compensation Order, is the twenty-ninth quarterly Application for compensation for services rendered that Woodcock has filed with the Bankruptcy Court and covers the Fee Period April through June 2010 (the Thirty-Seventh Quarterly Period).
- 5. Woodcock has filed the following Monthly Fee Applications for interim compensation during this Fee Period:
 - a. Summary Application of Woodcock for Compensation for Services and Reimbursement of Expenses as Counsel to W.R. Grace & Co., et al., for April 2010, filed June 16, 2010, attached hereto as Exhibit A.
 - b. Summary Application of Woodcock for Compensation for Services and Reimbursement of Expenses as Counsel to W.R. Grace & Co., et al., for May 2010, filed July 13, 2010, attached hereto as Exhibit B.
 - c. Summary Application of Woodcock for Compensation for Services and Reimbursement of Expenses as Counsel to W.R. Grace & Co., et al., for June 2010, filed August 9, 2010, attached hereto as Exhibit C.

In the originally submitted Summary Application for May 2010, as well as in the original Quarterly Fee Application covering May 2010, five hours billed by Gary Levin (hourly rate $595.00 (erroneously listed as $570.00)) were inadvertently credited instead to Stephanie Barbosa (hourly rate $335), resulting in an hours-times-rate discrepancy of $1,300.00 over the originally requested fees of $7,703.50 for May 2010. Eighty percent of those fees were earlier paid, leaving a new reconciliation balance for May 2010, as now requested here, of $2,840.70.

6. In its role as ordinary course professional, Woodcock has advised W.R. Grace & Co.-Conn. on general matters relating to intellectual property and has performed general services in the intellectual property field, such as rendering opinions on certain intellectual property matters. Because Woodcock's fee applications may be obtained by third-parties, the descriptions of fee services provided here are necessarily more general than might otherwise be provided in order to protect applicable privileges.

Requested Relief

7. By this Quarterly Fee Application, Woodcock requests that the Court approve the interim allowance of compensation for professional services rendered and the reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses incurred by Woodcock for the Fee Period and for the periods covered by the Petition, as detailed in the Applications and Petition, less any amount actually paid to Woodcock pursuant to the Applications and Petition during the pendency of this Quarterly Fee Application.

Disinterestedness

8. Woodcock does not hold or represent any interest adverse to the estates, and has been, at all relevant times, a disinterested person as that term is defined in section 101(14) of the Bankruptcy Code as modified by section 1107(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Woodcock disclosed in its Application for Appointment as Special Litigation Counsel any connection it had to the Debtors that it had been able to ascertain using its reasonable efforts. Woodcock will update the disclosures where necessary if Woodcock becomes aware of material new information.

Representations

- 9. Woodcock believes that this Quarterly Fee Application complies with the requirements of Del.Bankr.LR2016-2 and the Amended Interim Compensation Order.
- 10. Woodcock performed the services for which it is seeking compensation on behalf of or for the Debtors and their estates, and not on behalf of any committee, creditor, or other person.
- 11. During the Fee Period, Woodcock has received no payment, nor has it received any promises for payment, from any other source for services rendered during the Fee Period or to be rendered in any capacity whatsoever in connection with its acting as counsel for Debtors.
- 12. Pursuant to Fed. R. Bank. P. 2016(b), Woodcock has not shared, nor has it agreed to share, (a) any compensation it has received or may receive with another party or person other than with the partners, counsel, and associates of Woodcock, or (b) any compensation another person or party has received or may receive in connection with the Chapter 11 case.

WHEREFORE, Woodcock respectfully requests that the Court enter an order providing (a) that, for this Fee Period, April through June 2010, an administrative allowance be made to Woodcock in the amounts of (i) $15,022.50 as compensation for reasonable and necessary professional services rendered for the Debtors and (ii) $4.72 for reimbursement of actual and necessary costs and expenses incurred, for a total of $15,027.22 and (b) that the Debtors be authorized and directed to pay to Woodcock these outstanding amounts, less any amounts previously paid to Woodcock, pursuant to the Applications and the procedures set forth in the Interim Compensation Order.

Date: November 2, 2010

Respectfully submitted
